Varsity Musical Show to Be Held Tonight

Grizzlies Drop Close Game, Cheney Quintet Emerging Victor, 31-29

Lead Changes Hands Nine Times During Tilt; Score Tied On Four Occasions; Cubs Beaten by Independent Polson Team; West and Miller High Men

Montana Grizzlies dropped a 31-29 game last night to Cheney Normal Savages after Keithley had sunk a basket leaving the Grizzlies two points behind with one minute of play left. The lead changed nine times and was tied on four occasions. The Polson Independents won the preliminary game from the University Cubs, 34-28.

The Savages took a four-point lead in the first minutes until Glover made a free throw, and Blastic and Chumrau sank long shots. Rebensdorf, sharp shooting guard, sank two mid-floor shots, L. West made several short shots, and Danekas scored twice to lead the Cheney scoring in the first half. Thomson, Miller and Glover led the Montana scoring and Keithley made a last minute basket to put the Grizzlies ahead 16-15 at the half.

Kerns, Sheney guard, and Miller sank long mid-floor shots in the first minutes of the second half and Anderson evened the count with a free throw. West and Kerns counted often in the last period and Cheney steadily forged ahead with nine minutes of play remaining. With the score 23-31 in favor of Cheney, Miller made two long tosses good and Keithley sank his last-minute basket.

Diminutive L. West, with 11 points, led the Savage scorers, and was supported by Kerns and Rebensdorf, who scored often on long shots. Charles Miller, Grizzly guard, was second high for individual honors making 10 points.

Fritz, Chidley, Ekstedt Given Ring Decisions

Sixteen Bouts Scheduled In First Eliminations Of Tournament

Three fast bouts in the gymnasium Wednesday started the ball rolling toward the finals of the annual M club tournament. Three men stepped closer to the finals and their opponents were eliminated.

In the first bout, George Fritz, New York City, used his height and reach to advantage and won the judges' decision over John Timm, Missoula. John Thomson, Missoula, dropped a two-round decision to Bradley Ekstedt, Dooley. Neil Chidley, Missoula, one of the favorites to cop the welterweight title, was off form and was forced to extend himself in the last round to win from a short and willing opponent, Harry Stockman, Hamilton.

In the eliminations Friday there will be eight bouts. These bouts and eight more Monday will finish the first-round eliminations. The fights will start at 3 o'clock on both days.

The program for Friday is as follows: Poston vs. Churchill, under 125 pounds; Martel vs. Smallwood, 125 to 135 pounds; Fidler vs. Lewis, 145 to 155 pounds; Jensen vs. Walsh, 155 to 165 pounds; J. McCauley vs. More, 135 to 145 pounds; S. Wharton vs. Ross, 135 to 145 pounds; Wayne Lindgren vs. Bennett, 155 to 165 pounds; Halland vs. Farnum, 165 to 175 pounds.

Bishop Gilmore Sends Greetings By U Delegates

McDowell and Valton Are Present At Consecration Ceremonies In Capitol City

Joe McDowell, Deer Lodge, and Leo Valton, Seattle, Wash., Newman club delegates to the consecration of Bishop Joseph Gilmore at Helena, returned to the campus Thursday bearing greetings from the newly installed head of the Catholic diocese. Bishop Gilmore expressed keen interest in the activities of the university students and promised an early visit to Missoula. Conversations with Archbishop Howard, Portland, Oregon; Bishop Kucera, Lincoln, Nebraska; Attorney General Nagle and many other prominent religious, state and civic leaders disclosed an alert interest in the religious activities of local students.

Speaking at the civic reception following the consecration ceremonies these members of the state clergy and laity stressed the integration of religion and good citizenship in the realization of democratic ideals. Among the speakers was Andrew V. Corry, local faculty member, who represented the laity.

During their stay in Helena the local delegates were guests of Father Riley, president of Carroll college.

CORRY CONTINUES PROGRAMS

This afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock Andrew Corry, instructor in English and humanities, is giving a record recital of Madrigals. These recitals are primarily for members of the humanities class and their friends, but others may come. They are being given in Main hall, room 205.

The final contest will take place next Monday evening when the Harlem Globe Trotters and the House of David meet in the university gym.

The singers for the winners last night were John Gravelle, Hamilton; Koynce Osborne, Livingston; Bernie Sjaholm, Great Falls, and Emerson Miller, Missoula. Richards Speaks On Fire Hazard Of Forest Plants

Professor Says Blaze Susceptibility Parallels High Temperatures Of Warm Season

Plant chemistry and its relations to fire resistance, a new field for investigation, was discussed by Dr. Leon Richards before Phi Sigma, national biological fraternity, last Friday night in the Eloise Knowles room of the Student Union building.

Dr. Richards explained that the research consisted in general of an investigation to determine the nature of plant constituents as related to their susceptibility to fire, and also how, with the change in seasons, the forest's understorey consisting of certain shrubs, herbs and grasses is likely to influence the fire hazard.

To prove this, he said that in the spring the crude fiber content was low, the percentage of fats, oils and volatile substances was slight, but with the waning of the season the increased temperatures and lower relative humidities seemed to bring an increase in the amount of fats which lift the kindling temperatures, increasing the rate of spread as well as the intensity of the fire.

Miss Crutchfield To Talk Monday

Mixers Are Postponed For Financial Reasons

There will be no matinee mixer next week. Because of small crowds the last two mixers have not proved financially successful, which has resulted in the necessity of postponing the dances until a later date.

The Montana Student Union will sponsor the matinee mixers, possibly on Tuesday or Wednesday of the week after next. The management has expressed the hope that more upperclassmen will attend future matinee mixers.

Health Service Spends $4,709, Badgley's Fall Figures Reveal

Excess of Disbursements Over Receipts Totals $83.16; Hospital and Infirmary Bills, X-ray Service Cost $1,651.70; Student Refunds Large

To cover expenses incurred during the fall quarter, $4,709.33 was spent by the university health service, according to a recent report made by Kirk Badgley, assistant business manager. A cash balance of $284.97 was remaining in the fund on July 1, 1935. In addition to this amount, a sum of $42.85, collected prior to the beginning of the fall quarter, was added to the $4,259.25 received from fees at the beginning of the fall quarter and $40, gold serum charges, leaving a total of $4,626.17 for which to be accounted.

An excess in disbursements amounting to $83.16, is the result of the purchase of medical supplies in large quantities which will be used throughout the remainder of the year.

The health service director received $577.50 in wages for the quarter's work. Payments amounting to $441.45 were made to nurses, proctor and clerical help for wages. Supplies

They Dared Publish It! Razz Sheet for Tonight

Thursday, the mournful howl of an anguished dog emanating from behind the men's gym presaged the forthcoming demise which is expected by the editors of The Abattoir, journalists for slaughter house, following the release of Dirty Sox's successor in the razz publication field at Varsity Vodvil tonight. Busily engaged in putting the final touches upon what Sigma Delta Chi's ballyhoo as the "greatest, positively the most astounding, reveals-all sheet in history" the superstitious campus scribes in the shack were chilled to the very marrow of their bones by the legendary omen of soon to arrive disastrous consequences.

During the past weeks sleuthing stooges of the scandal mongering fraternity have been gun shoeing into the Journalism building, tapping thrice upon the door to the press room and whispering the pass word "Dirt" upon request from the inner guardians of strict secrecy. Spies in every fraternity, sorority, dormitory and dwelling house in Missoula have endeavored to get the lowdown on their associates' activities and The Abattoir will bear printed testimony which will attest to their industry. The publication's candid cameraman has been working overtime of late as have those gifted with pens dripping with caustic sarcasm, invective and wit.

"This artistic masterpiece of the age will positively have no advance sale, all copies will be dispensed by members responsible for their production, at both shows tonight, for the inconsequential sum of one dime. Free-for-all battles in defense of published material will be engaged in following the second show and all comers will be met—via correspondence from Seelye lake, future winter headquarters of the scopsters," was the statement made by one of the culprits yesterday while making arrangements for a hasty departure following Varsity Vodvil.

Bearded Men, Globe Trotters Will Play Here

Men's Gymnasium Is Scene For All-Professional Game Monday

Two of the country's outstanding professional basketball teams will meet at the men's gymnasium Monday night when the original Harlem Globe Trotters, famous colored clowns, play the bearded House of David quint. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

The Trotters, traveling for the ninth season, have an amazing record. Last year they won 154 out of 156 games, played in 16 states and three provinces in Canada. Only five players were carried on this 25,580-mile trip, but this year one more man was added as a replacement in case of illness of one of the regulars.

The team, under the management of A. M. Saperstein, will feature Inman Jackson, six-foot three and one-half-inch center, who formerly starred with the City College of New York. Jackson, captain, is playing his sixth year with the Harlem team and is in his fourteenth year of independent basketball.

Harry Russian, five-foot four-inch forward, is the scoring sensation of the team and an all-American colored forward. While at Paul Quinn college in Waco, Texas, Russian entered the game and has since continued his sensational career. The other players, each as sensational, are Opa Cruzier, Pat McPherson and Robert Franzler.

The Davids, who appeared here once this season, will feature Charles (Red) Johnston, who played with Central Normal of Indiana, and Jerry Martin, St. Louis university, forwards; Slim Curtiss, who has played with the Denver Pigs and the United Melba team, at center, and Charles Kezba and Harry Beelman at guards.

In three years of touring the unshaven quint has won 242 and lost 34 games. Last year they won 93 of 104 played.

fraternities and sororities entering acts are Sigma Kappa, Phi Sigma Kappa, Alpha Phi, Phi Delta Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Sigma Chi and Delta Gamma. Cover acts are sponsored by Independent men, Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Sigma Lambda, Independent women and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Awards for the competition will be $25 and a 16-inch bronze cup to the men's and women's acts winning first place; a ten-inch silver cup to the winners of second places, and the winner of the cover act competition will be presented a nine-inch silver plaque.

Winners of the 1934 Varsity Vodvil were Kappa Kappa Gamma and Phi Delta Theta. Sigma Kappa and Phi Sigma Kappa placed second.

Master of Ceremonies

Ray Whitcomb, yell king, will be the master of ceremonies during the evening and will be used as a unifying element during the intervals between the main acts. He will be assisted by a masked stooge who will be unmasked after impressive ceremonies. Whitcomb said Thursday that most of his performance and the announcing of the acts will be in pantomime with the stooge appearing at unexpected and unscheduled moments.

Varsity Vodvil management announced Thursday that arrangements had been made to present John Gravelle in several baritone solo numbers. In place of the planned massed finale number, arrangements have been made to provide surprise entertainment as a finale.

Unusual Sets

Sets for the acts were constructed by the organizations entering the competition and are more elaborate than any Varsity Vodvil sets ever used. The sets have necessitated the construction of three special drop backs, and 20 platforms for the dancers.

Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority has constructed and will use a special cocktail shaker that is fifteen feet high and required 15 pounds of special gilt finish. Phi Delta Theta fraternity is using a circular step platform more than eight feet high. The Alpha Phi and the Kappa Kappa Gamma sororities will use a special luminous paint in one act which, when used with a filter on the spot light makes every object on the stage not coated with the paint invisible.

Special Newspaper

A special edition of the "Abattoir," successor to "Dirty Sox," will be issued by Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, and will be sold at the performance.

Ticket sales, under the direction of George Scott, ticket manager, have gone ahead steadily and a capacity house is expected. Special blocks of seats are being held until the final night to insure seating for everyone and to prevent scalping of the tickets. Each organization entered in the finals has purchased a block of seats. Seating arrangements will put students on one side of the house and townspeople on the other. Tickets are priced at 40 and 55 cents.

Members of the staff of the 1936 Varsity Vodvil are Jocko Shenk, managing director; Arthur Kullman, assistant manager; Stanley Koch, publicity director; Collins Johnson, stage technician; Richard Pope, master electrician, and George Scott, ticket manager.

Judges of the competition have been selected, but at their request the names will not be announced until after the awarding of the prizes. Five judges will be used in deciding the winners of the final presentation.

The Kaimin Re-states Its Policy

During the past few years we have often heard the statement made that newspapers which say nothing, although they do it quite well, are far worse than those which clumsily attempt to present an honest opinion even though their vices of over-sensationalism and indiscretion are great. Those newspapers which say nothing and do nothing, offer no leadership nor interpretation in this complex modern world, of course, receive little criticism for they do not frequently antagonize anyone. They belong to that dead class mentioned by Dr. Carl Moore in his inaugural address last week when he said, "So far as is recorded in human history no mummy ever made a mistake."

It is only this year that the Kaimin has made any sustained effort to come out of the "mummy" class and that with the realization that college papers function under a set-up strangely different from their privately-owned contemporaries in the professional world. A college paper is published by the students of its college and as such its editors are placed, to a certain degree, in the roles of hired publishers. It is their duty to print the events of the campus inhabitants. They must accept every issue so much in the way of publicity, academic notes and a little stale news which has already made the rounds of the campus through a talkative student body living in concentrated areas.

During the half year which has passed we have attempted to do this in a manner pleasing to those who expected the publicity and at the same time have attempted to put out a more interesting Kaimin. There have been times when stories have not been played as prominently as some would have desired and times when stories were omitted because of the pressure of other events which we judged to be more important in a publication with limited space. Of those things we must be the sole judges.

We have listened to the "grippers" and "soreheads;" we have made every effort to handle the news in a fair, rational manner; we have attempted to maintain an impartiality as regards campus organizations; we have attempted to portray student opinion and student trends in the mirror of the college paper; we have experimented and strived for improvement. Inevitably we have made mistakes; we have unavoidably made enemies and similarly, through no specific effort, a few friends.

During the remainder of the year we intend to continue this policy and to draw from our past experiences in producing a better paper. We hope that our mistakes will be fewer and that we may satisfy those finding fault—if we can do so without forsaking our stand to remain out of the "mummy" class.

"I Promise Not to Fall in Love . . ."

Believing that if we must have teachers' oaths, we should go all the way instead of restricting them merely to patriotic sentiments, Representative Scott of California has offered to Congress a parody on such pledges for District of Columbia teachers. His proposed amendment to the bill, however, is no parody but the actual wording used in teachers' contracts in a small North Carolina town. Part of it is as follows:

I promise to take a vital interest in all phases of Sunday school work, donating of my time, service and money without stint, for the benefit and uplift of the community.

I promise to abstain from all dancing, immodest dressing and any other conduct unbecoming a teacher and lady.

I promise not to go out with any young man, except insofar as it may be necessary to stimulate Sunday school work.

I promise not to fall in love, to become engaged or secretly married.

I promise to remain in the dormitory, or on the school grounds, when not actively engaged in school or church work elsewhere.

I promise not to encourage or tolerate the least familiarity on the part of any of my boy pupils.

I promise to sleep at least eight hours each night, to eat carefully, to take every precaution to keep in the best of health and spirits, in order that I may better be able to render efficient service to my pupils.

Representative Scott's proposed amendment sharply points out the absurdity of such oaths, but there is a danger in presenting it. The same majority in Congress which thought it wise to require District of Columbia teachers, before they could receive their salary checks, to swear that they had not "taught Communism" during the previous month, might take it seriously and legislate it into law.

Up the rungs of the political ladder in recent years has come Alf Landon, governor of Kansas and at the present time a strong candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. His strongest claim to recognition lies in the fact that he has balanced the budget for Kansas. To do so he has sliced off expenditures for the care of the aged, for schools, for state officials' salaries, for all forms of relief. We admire the man who can balance a budget in these days but we question whether or not it is desirable when done by such methods. In the long run Kansas may suffer; certainly it will not benefit through the curtailment of educational facilities and by refusing to help shoulder the burden of its aged and unemployed.

The sons of those who had asked England for liberty or death are wondering if they haven't been bested in the bargain. After 200 years, the swaddling infant that had cast aside the breast of her Mother Country for the Bottle of Freedom, is angling about for a refill. It has begun to dawn on us that taxation without representation wasn't half so bad as taxation without money.—Gordon Flint.

Reading over the story of the recent Cat-Grizzly game, we conclude that mayhem must have resulted every time a Bobcat got close to the basket . . . Just to be nice to the Grizzlies, we wish them luck over here the twenty-ninth, but personally, we hope we beat the daylight out of them.—Montana Exponent.

A ROUNDER and ABOUT

The thing this campus needs of late is a gal who's not hungry after a date.

HOROSCOPE

February 21, 1936

Good influences are especially apparent in today's horoscope, so consequently it is the day to push all important affairs, such as consideration of a blind date to Co-ed and reading thermometers.

A boom is seen for all those embarking upon new enterprises such as tattoo removing, bustle fitting, scissor grinding and sewing gold braid on German hand uniforms.

Persons born on this date will be especially fond of peroxide blondes, cabbage soup, limburger cheese and banana pie. Persons not born on this date will undoubtedly like other things.

The influences of Jupiter and Venus seem to favor maneuvering for seats in the lounge and congregating in the vestibules of North hall.

The day is apt to prove unprofitable for those engaged in kidnapping and selling hot bricks.

Something we will never see is Al Smith backing Frankla D. Or Herbie Hoover for the presidency.

And from our Paris correspondent we learn that the French nation is willing to talk to Uncle Sam about the war debts on anything but a franc basis.

I wonder if the man is still at large who had nerve to invent The cover charge.

BLAH ARRIVES

Starting on his state-wide campaign for election to the U. S. senate, Pseudo E. Blah arrived in town yesterday.

Caught by our candid tynpter, the Peoples' Choice is seen spinning down University avenue in his stream-lined Rolls Royce. Accompanying him is Prexy Jimmy Meyers, who presented Blah with a key to the bleachers.

In an exclusive interview, Blah said he was in favor of establishing a new natural science course in the university, "How to Wolf on the Fraternity Brothers, 39 xyz."

PARABLES OF HUDAMORE THE SEER

And lo it came to pass that during the time whenst the ground was covered with a mighty snow and a Great Blizzard didst ravage the country, Hudamore the Seer was visited by a young woman, who was withal an Classy Number.

So the Wise One bade her to draw up a stool and warm the soles of her feet, but she didst naught but Stand and Fight, and seemed not inclined to Throw the Ox, moreover.

And at last she cried out in a loud voice and doleful the ensuing Yarn: Oh ye, whose Strength of Brain exceedeth all others, I am in sorry fettle. Because for the past five months come Michaelmas I have been escorted about by Four Males, who are in their own right a senior, junior, sophomore and freshman respectively.

So now when the time Hath come that I canst repay one of them for the gold he Hath Expended, which one will it be?

And after much Thought and De-liberation the Seer spaketh: Go thy way in peace, and taking thyself to your abode wait until you do receive a phone call, and being it a man, No Matter Who, invite him thereupon to Co-ed, thus settle thy Troubled Mind.

And so the Fair One didst depart well pleased, and the Seer betook himself to the Phone, and didst Pat Himself upon the back while calling Her Number.

Is Your Birthday February 29, Woman?

Here's a Free Ticket to Co-ed Formal

All university women whose birthdays fall on February 29 will receive a special birthday present from A.W.S. for Co-ed formal—in the form of a free ticket to the dance. Esther Swanson, chairman of the affair, announced yesterday that those women who have a birthday only once every four years should notify her immediately and obtain their tickets and programs for the dance.

Plans for the dance have been completed and it is expected that this year's Co-ed formal will be one of the biggest ever held on the campus. Ticket sales will begin next week, with special salesmen in the sorority houses and residence halls. Independent women and girls who live in town may purchase their tickets in Main hall on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 1 until 4 o'clock. The ticket sales committee consists of Dorothy Russell, Bozeman, chairman; Marion Mix, Missoula; Catherine Murphy, Butte, and Katherine Bartley, Great Falls.

The management wishes to stress the fact that the dance will begin promptly at 9 o'clock. All co-eds are urged to make arrangements so that they will be there on time.

Bill Pruess and his nine-piece orchestra have been engaged to play for the dance which will end at 12 o'clock. Acting Dean Mary Elrod Ferguson has granted late permission until 1 o'clock, in order that sororities may have parties following the dance. The Student store will remain open until 1 o'clock so that independent women may buy supper for their escorts.

The leap-year theme will be emphasized throughout the entire program—novelty programs have been purchased and the decoration scheme will be carried out in traditional leap-year fashion. Students of the Fisher School of Dancing will put on a floor show during the intermission.

"Don't forget, co-eds, it's the biggest event of the year for university women—the place is the gold room, the date is February 29, and you take your best boy friend," says Miss Swanson.

Dr. Carl Moore Relates Functions Of Human Glands

Executive of University of Chicago Is Speaker at Convocation Tuesday Morning

Dr. Carl R. Moore, executive head of the zoology department at the University of Chicago, addressed a student convocation Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in the Student Union auditorium. "Regulations of the Life Processes by the Endocrine Glands" was the subject of Dr. Moore's speech.

At present, Dr. Moore is engaged in the revision of his chapter on the Male Hormone in the volume on Sex and Internal Secretions which was published in 1932 by the National Research council. This chapter, written by Dr. Moore, is considered the most authoritative on the subject in existence.

Dr. Moore addressed the Author's club and Missoula townspeople Sunday afternoon. The speech was scheduled for Saturday, but due to the fact that the train on which Dr. Moore came to Missoula was late, the talk was postponed until Sunday.

Grizzlies Meet Strong Gonzaga Team in Last Home Fray of Season

Cubs Play Butte Business College Quint in Preliminary; Washington Team Holds Victory Over Montana Men; Bulldogs Have One of Outstanding Squads

Intercollegiate basketball for 1935 will make its last appearance in Missoula tomorrow night when the Grizzlies will attempt to reverse the drubbing the Gonzaga Bulldogs handed them in Spokane. In a preliminary game the Cubs will meet the Butte Business college quint at 7 o'clock the same night.

The Bulldogs trounced the Grizzlies in the first game after leading at the half, 17-16. The Bulldogs have the best team in years and have beaten both the House of David and the Harlem Globe Trotters this season.

Coach Claude McGrath will bring 10 Bulldogs for the return Grizzly encounter. Captain Herman Brass, one of the team's most aggressive floor men and high in the team's scoring honors, will probably start at one forward berth, paired with Coerte Van Voorhis, consistent-playing senior, Gale Seigle, 6 foot 2 inch center, is a sophomore who has been playing regularly.

Leonard Yandle, the sensational scoring guard who has made 197 points in 15 games, is the team's sparkplug, although he is the smallest member of the starting lineup. Ray Leonard, his running mate at guard, is adept at following up shots, as evidenced by the 10 points he made against the Grizzlies in the first game.

Other members of the team are Dave Hurley, a flashy sophomore forward; Jim Mathers, a first year forward; Chuck Flajole, veteran guard from Seattle, who alternates with Leonard; Frank Pettyjohn, a center transfer from Southern Oregon Normal, and Tom O'Donnell, sophomore alternate guard.

Montana will have Captain Hank Blastic, Bob Thomson and Doug Brown, forwards; "Tex" Glover and Don Holmquist, centers; Paul Chumrau, Charles Miller and Stevens, guards. Mitchell, Keithley, Quam, Marsh and Castles are alternates.

The Butte Business college will probably start Nugent and McCaw, forwards; Sullivan, center, and Babich and Penny, guards, against the freshman lineup. Lazetich and Hoar will probably be the starting forwards for the first year men, Seyler, center, and McGee and Patterson, guards.

Probable starting lineups:
Grizzlies Bulldogs
Blastic Brass
Thomson VanVoorhis
Glover Seigle
Miller Yandle
Chumrau Leonard
Guard Guard

Sporty Vents

The showing of the Grizzlies last Saturday night against the Bobcats demonstrated what a hard-fighting, highly-keyed team can accomplish against supposedly superior odds. The team took the floor with their coach and themselves the only persons in the gym thinking they had half a chance against the best the Bobcats could boast for many years. The game ended in the Cats favor, but they will be forced to admit they were mighty lucky to pull the game from the fire.

Cheney Normal played here last night and the Gonzaga Bulldogs come Saturday night for what should prove to be a replica of the Bobcat game. With the count against them in the previous game the Grizzlies will be out to avenge the setback. If the Grizzlies play the same hard ball they did last Saturday night, they will make it extremely interesting for the visiting team. It is the last home game this year.

Saturday's game will be the last home game for Captain Hank Blastic. For three years on the court field and three years on the court, Hank has played and given his best for the Grizzlies. Athletes come, play and are soon forgotten, making way for younger, more enthusiastic recruits, but to those of us who know Hank, we believe it will be a long time before another is found with his intense competitive spirit.

Much of the credit for the success of the M club tournament must go to Cale Crowley. One of the best amateur fighters the state has ever turned out, Cale has worked with untiring efforts to teach his pupils some of his own skill. The boxing sense his students will show in the coming eliminations and finals is a tribute to his teaching powers.

Sixteen Entered In Second Round Of Throw Trials

Doug Brown Leads All Contestants With 22 Out of 25 Baskets; 18 Is Lowest Total

Out of 102 contestants entered in the annual free throw contest, 16 have qualified for the second round. This is the first time since the contest began that it has taken the total of 18 baskets or more to qualify.

The leading scorer of the contest is Doug Brown, with 22 baskets out of 25 tries. Tom Scheffer and Ed Erlanson are tied in second place with 20 each. In fourth place with 18 apiece are Walter Wetzel, Bob Thomson, Charles Miller, Joe Pomajevich and LaRue Smith. These men are eligible to enter the second round and will have 25 more throws. The eight having the highest total out of 50 baskets will be entered in the third round.

This preheating process at higher temperatures consists of four main stages, which involve carefully controlled temperature gradations. Quantities of undesirable constituents are removed. In effect, then, this method of preheating at higher temperatures constitutes a completion or fulfillment of the curing and aging processes.

Lewandowski said, "If boys of grade and junior high and high school age learn the primary fundamentals and learn them well enough to put them into practice, they will develop into better basketball players." The primary purpose of the class is to instruct boys in the fundamentals of the game so that when they participate they will know what to do and how to do it properly. Varsity players will assist in showing how the fundamentals are to be carried out correctly.

Lewandowski will stress various types of dribbling, passing, shooting, starts, cuts, playing speeds, tipping the ball at center, stance, approach and footwork. In dribbling he will coach the stride stop, the jump stop, full pivot, outside pivot, backward pivot, and the turn. Four types of shots will be featured—the chest shot, free shot, one hand lay in, one hand push shot. Special shots will be demonstrated. The various types of passes to be shown include the push, underhand, baseball, bounce, hook and the handed passes.

ECONOMIC SERVICE

"Service" has become a sort of handy by-word. It may mean much or next to nothing.

At this store the word is taken seriously. It is neither an indefinite generality nor a can't expression. Service here is real and tangible. And of all forms of service we regard ECONOMIC Service as the first function of a store and its primary justification for existence.

In plain words, Economic Service means THE DUTY OF PROVIDING YOU WITH WORTHY MERCHANDISE AT LOWEST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH QUALITY. All other features of store service—convenient and essential as they are—are secondary to this great fundamental.

For Digestion's Sake—smoke Camels

Natural digestive action notably increased by smoking Camels

People in every walk of life get "keyed up"...live too hurriedly. The effects on digestion are known to all! In this connection, it is an interesting fact that smoking a Camel during or between meals tends to stimulate and promote digestion. Enjoy Camel's mildness... the feeling of well-being fostered by Camel's matchless blend of costlier tobaccos. Smoke Camels for digestion's sake!

COLLEGE LIFE is a strain on the physique, with its endless demands on mind and body. Often, as a result, digestion suffers. Smoking Camels eases the strain of the busy whirl—promotes good digestion.

the diners. William says of Camels: "Camels and good food go together. Our patrons naturally prefer quality tobaccos, judging by the popularity that Camels enjoy here. So we try to keep well stocked with Camels."

IN BRITISH GUIANA—the LaVarres ford a river. "Camels make any meal digest easier," says William LaVarre. Mrs. LaVarre adds: "Camels help my digestion, in the jungle or dining at home."

GEORGE LOTT, tennis champion, knows how over-exertion strikes at digestion. He says: "I smoke a lot. Camels have a beneficial effect on digestion. They help me to enjoy what I eat and get more good out of it."
